C. Composition of the Mission

Representative/Participants	Team
Chief of Mission	1
Team Captain	1
Trainer / Coach	3
Male competitors	6 (3 x Rifle , 3 x Pistol)
Female competitors	6 (3 x Rifle, 3 x Pistol)
Total	17

International Military Sports Council
54th CISM World Military Shooting Championship
22nd to 30th September - Rio de Janeiro - Brazil

- I. List the composition of the mission according to the latest version of CISM Shooting Regulations (Draft Edition October 2018)
- II. No additional member(s) may be included in the mission without prior approval of the Organizing Committee.
- III. Members of the CISM Sports Committee - Shooting are authorized to integrate the delegations of their countries and will not count towards the composition of their nations' mission.
- IV. Only military personnel in active duty may participate in the competitions (CISM Regulations, Art. 7.23, item A)

D. Access to the Location of the Competition

1. Teams shall arrive at:
 - a. Rio de Janeiro International Airport Antonio Carlos Jobim (Galeão) – GIG or
 - b. Santos Dumont Airport - SDU.
2. Airport information can be found at www.riogaleao.com and/or <https://www.aeroportosantosdumont.net/en/>.
3. Brazilian Delegation to CISM will provide representatives on GIG and SDU Airports to welcome delegations and leave to the shooting range and official hotels or barracks.
4. All delegations are requested to arrange the GIG Airport (Rio de Janeiro Tom Jobim International Airport – Galeão) and SDU Airport (Santos Dumont Airport) for arrival and departure. Main international airlines can reach GIG Airport directly. If there is any country that the first stop in Brazil will be GRU Airport (Sao Paulo), the custom process will be not automatic and can take much more time than in GIG. For those countries it's strongly recommended to have a connecting flight with minimum 5 hours from GRU to GIG or SDU, because Brazilian government requests that the custom formalities for all luggage and firearms must be made at the first international airport of Brazil Territory upon arrival.
5. Most probably some South American countries will come to Rio de Janeiro by bus. As for the transportation of the weapons, we let those countries know that the Organizing Committee cannot provide either the arrangements with the customs located in the Brazilian land borders or the security escort from the border to Rio de Janeiro.
6. The competition will take place in “Centro Militar de Tiro Esportivo (CMTE) - (Olympic Shooting Centre – Rio 2016), located in Deodoro Olympic Park, Av. Brasil, 27195 - Vila Militar, Rio de Janeiro - RJ, Zip Code: 21615-338” (See Annex 5 - Map from airport to the venue).
7. The travel cost to the host country and respective return will occur under the responsibility of the participating missions/country.

International Military Sports Council
54th CISM World Military Shooting Championship
22nd to 30th September - Rio de Janeiro - Brazil

8. The organizer will ensure the transportation from the place of arrival in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, to the place of stay and the transport during the competitions as well.
9. The Organizing Committee will provide official transportation from 22 Sep 2023 till 30 Sep 2023 as under:
 - a. From Airport to the shooting range to leave the guns and then to the official hotels or barracks.
 - b. Transportation from official hotels or barracks to the Range on daily basis during competition.
 - c. From the official hotels or barracks to the shooting range to collect the guns and then to the Airport (for returning delegations).
10. In case of using other type of transportation, for instance, Military Aircrafts or land transportation, the delegations must inform the Brazilian Delegation to CISM, in order to make the necessary arrangements.
11. We kindly ask you to inform us about your other specific needs.

E. Conditions of Stay

1. During the stay in Brazil the missions will be guests of the Brazilian Defense Ministry. Boarding and lodging will be provided by the host to all participants during their stay in Brazil from 22nd to 30th September, 2023. Mission members will be accommodated in barracks, or in hotels, in separate rooms, according to the budget that will be defined with opportunity.
2. During the 54th CISM World Military Shooting Championship, the Organizing Committee will provide a local transport, food & beverage and accommodation free of charge to the participants.
3. Extra expenses including telephone calls, laundry, food and drinks must be paid by the consumers.
4. Additional people will not be accepted without official written permission of the Organizers.
5. Missions arriving before 22nd October and departing after 30th September 2023 will be responsible for all expenses incurred in the period out of competition and has to be accommodated in a normal external hotel. CISM Officials such as the Official CISM Representative (OCR), PCSC, CSC (Shooting members) and other authorized representatives are allowed to arrive on 20th September 2023, with no costs.
6. Delegations that will participate in the ISSF World Cup in Rio de Janeiro, must provide their own arrangements to stay in Brazil, until the official arrival day to CISM Championship (22nd Sep 2023).

International Military Sports Council
54th CISM World Military Shooting Championship
22nd to 30th September - Rio de Janeiro - Brazil

7. In accordance with the Statutes and traditions of CISM, any political or any religious action during the competition, in particular the dissemination of propaganda documents, pictures, clothing, brochures, reviews etc, is strictly forbidden. Any contravention will result in immediate exclusion and deportation of such nation.
8. Medical emergencies (first aid) will be the responsibility of the Brazilian Armed Forces. The Brazilian Armed Forces will provide Doctors for all scheduled competitions. However, will not be responsible for any advanced medical expenses, to include hospital stays, surgical procedures, and/or other medical care beyond first aid. All participants must travel with their own valid HEALTH INSURANCE. Participants are also responsible for ensuring they have with them any specific medication or medical supplies required for the event as well.
9. The Championship will be conducted according to the updated Brazilian Government and local area COVID-19 rules.

F. Regulations of the Championship

1. Rules:
 - a. CISM Regulations (Edition January 2023);
 - b. CISM Shooting Regulations (Edition October 2018),
 - c. CISM Anti-Doping Regulations,
 - d. Specific regulations for this championship will be forwarded to all participating countries during the Technical Meeting.
2. Eligibility: All athletes must be military personnel on full active duty in the Armed Forces of their respective nations (art. 7.23 of the CISM Regulations). Participation of inactive member nations is not authorized (art.7.26 of the CISM Regulations).
3. Weapons and Ammunition
 - a. All weapons and ammunition will be under responsibility of the participating teams.
 - b. At the Olympic Shooting Centre, a weapon storage facility is available.
4. Competition

Maximum number of starts per event will not be more than entries (as given below) and as well the ranges capacity. Range capacity is determined by the available shooting time and the number of available firing points/ranges. If the maximum number of starts is reached during the Final Entry process, a “waiting list” for that event(s) will be established. If cancellations are subsequently received, entries from the waiting list will be entered on a first come, first served basis. CISM Headquarters and the Organizing Committee will cooperate to determine if additional entries from the waiting list can be accommodated.

International Military Sports Council
54th CISM World Military Shooting Championship

FINAL ENTRY - COMMITMENT BY THE CHIEF OF MISSION

To be returned before: 21st July 2023

NATION:

The undersigned, Chief of Mission declare that he has read the CISM Regulations and moreover understood the following prescriptions:

Article 1.10. RIGHTS OF MEMBER NATIONS

A. Active member nations have the right to:

Be invited to all CISM Championships.

B. Inactive member nations have the same rights as active member nations except that:

They do not participate in any CISM event until they have met their financial obligations.

An inactive nation, intending to take part in the event must pay its annual fee before the deadline established by the Organizing Committee of the world military championship for sending the final entry. If it is not done, the delegation will not be able to take part in the event.

Article 7.23. PARTICIPATION - MILITARY STATUS

A. Only military personnel on active duty in Armed Forces may take part in competitions organized by CISM.

B. No one may be recalled to active duty in the Armed Forces for the purpose of participating in a CISM competition. In the case of an intermittent military service, the athletes regularly recalled may not take part in CISM competitions, under any circumstances, if more than 18 months have elapsed between this recall and the end of their last call to arms.

C. Exceptions to the above may be authorized by the General Assembly, upon recommendation of the Board of Directors.

D. All military participants in a CISM event shall be in possession of proper documentation which signifies active military service of the member nation he represents. The documentation can be:

1. A valid military identity card for those athletes who are authorized to present their military identity cards abroad.

2. A form of verification (in English and/or French) of military status accompanied by a passport.

E. By signing the final entry, the Chief of Delegation confirms the military status of the participating athletes. If there are last minute changes in the participation of the athletes, the verification file may be signed by the Chief of Mission, but shall be confirmed by the Chief of Delegation by official letter.

F. If one of these documents is not available, participation is refused.

Article 7.32. CHIEF OF MISSION

A. Chief of Mission

1. Chiefs of Mission shall be familiar with CISM regulations.
2. Missions must not only participate or be present at sports events, they are also required to participate in information conferences on CISM, study days, commemorative and cultural events and ceremonies organized by the host nation.

B. Conduct of a mission

1. The Chief of Mission is responsible for the behavior of his team in sports and general discipline. He shall ensure that members of his mission respect the rules and directives prescribed by CISM and organizers of the championship. The respect of schedules is particularly important as they form the basis for the effective conduct of competitions and ceremonies. Instances of indiscipline or poor sportsmanship will be handled by Championship officials and may result in the disqualification of individual athletes or teams.

2. The Chief of Mission shall also enforce the rules concerning behavior and dress during the ceremonies. He plays an important role in promoting the CISM spirit among his mission, a spirit represented by friendly attitude towards other missions, courtesy towards organizers and fair-play in competition. The mission, who does not wear military uniforms during the opening ceremony of a Championship, will not be authorised to take part in the Championship. The Official CISM Representative will communicate this decision.

Article 8.6. ABSENCE OF A MISSION WITHOUT NOTIFICATION

If a mission which submits a preliminary agreement and/or final entry is absent without notifying the host nation in time, a sanction will be imposed (Regulations Art. 1.12).

Article 8.17. RULES OF STAY

A. General

1. The Chiefs of Mission are responsible for the discipline of their mission. The missions fall under the jurisdiction of the organizing nation. During events, all athletes present on the playing fields are equal before the jury, the referees and to themselves. No one may use his rank to impose his views on sports matters.

2. Civilian members of the missions shall conform to the discipline accepted by all other participants.

B. Military uniforms

1. Unless otherwise approved by the Official CISM Representative, all participants shall wear military uniform during official ceremonies such as the opening and closing ceremonies and medal-awarding ceremonies. Individuals without proper uniform will not be allowed to participate in the championship.

2. The presentation of medals will take place, in principle, during the closing ceremony. The presentation of medals may be done in sports uniform, if for organizational reasons it is not possible to wear military uniforms. This is the case e.g. when the presentation immediately follows a championship sports event. Sports uniforms shall respect the corresponding national criteria (training suit, sports shoes, etc.) Displaying the national flag on the podium by the recipient (athlete or team) at a medal awarding ceremony is forbidden. Individuals failing to respect these prescriptions shall not receive their medal(s) during the official ceremonies.

International Military Sports Council
54th CISM World Military Shooting Championship
22nd to 30th September - Rio de Janeiro - Brazil

C. Forbidden actions

1. In conformity with the statutes and traditions of CISM, any political or religious propaganda during a CISM event, in particular the dissemination of documents, pictures, brochures, reviews, etc. is strictly forbidden.

2. Any contravention shall result in the exclusion of the mission from further competition and may result in additional sanctions (Regulations Art. 1.12).

Article 8.19. ACCOMODATIONS

All missions, including those of the host nation, shall be accommodated under the same conditions. If the conditions are in accordance with the CISM norms and standards, the missions are expected to accept the accommodation provided by the organizing nation.

Any mission that does not accept the accommodations provided by the organizing nation and judged as adequate by the Official CISM Representative will not be allowed to participate in the championship.

NEW – I also declare that I checked national anthem on CISM website.
