Custom clearance

Shooters must declare their weapons and ammunition to Swedish Customs before travelling to Sweden. This service can be found at Swedish Custom Authorizations website www.tullverket.se. Denmark, Finland and Norway report with enclosure firearms form at the custom line. and all other countries must send the form to Tullverket.

Shooters from other countries must have special police permit to bring weapons and ammunition in and out of Sweden. Use the enclosure firearms form and send to Tullverket There is a police service fee for every permit.

If you need some assistance, please contact Lars Erik Bjuhr head of competition, we can assist with forms and payment to the Swedish Police Authority.

Notice! If you don't fill in firearms form in advanced, you will have some challenge at the custom line when you arrive to Sweden. You must make a group declaration, and you must pay a fee per weapon before you can bring your equipment into Sweden, and it will take some time doing this.

Storage Pistols and ammunition can be stored at the shooting range.
